

Questions, Quotes and Notes

June 18, 2023

Luke 10:17-24: Jesus and Joy

Pre-Sermon:

1. Read Luke 10:17-24
2. What words or ideas do you see are repeated in this passage?

Sermon:

1. Are you a joyful person?
2. If not, what do you think about that?
3. If you are a joyful person, what do you typically find joy in?
4. What were the disciples rejoicing in?
5. How does Jesus respond?
6. What is unusual about his response?
7. If Jesus is winning, what is the problem with the way the disciples were rejoicing?
8. What does he tell them to rejoice in?
9. Do you find joy in that?
10. What can we learn from the way Jesus rejoiced that can help us rejoice in our salvation?

Notes:

1. What the disciples were rejoicing in
2. Why that was a problem
3. What Jesus wanted them to rejoice in
4. Why they should rejoice in that

Cross References/Quotes:

1. "No story in the gospels emphasizes the disciples' joy and Jesus' participation in their joy as expressly as does this story."
2. Sometimes the problem is people are looking for joy in the wrong things. Sometimes the problem is people aren't looking for joy at all. And sometimes the problem is that people are looking for their joy in right things, in good things, but for the wrong reason.
3. Genesis 3:15
4. The Story Behind Snakes and How They Point Us to Jesus:
<https://africa.thegospelcoalition.org/reviews/the-story-behind-snakes-and-how-they-point-us-to-jesus/>

After Sermon:

1. What was the message basically about?
2. Do you have a problem with joy? If so, what are you going to do about it?
3. Does what makes Jesus joyful make you joyful? Why or why not?
4. Is there anything you need to repent of or believe as a result of what you heard today?
5. How can we pray for you as a result of this message?