Sermon:

1. What is going on in the passage we are looking at today?
2. What does the word Transfiguration mean?
3. What happens right before the Transfiguration?
4. How does Luke make sure you make this connection?
5. What key thing did the disciples not understand about how God was accomplishing His plan through the Messiah?
6. Why did Jesus think it made sense to be willing to suffer and die for following Him? What is his logic?
7. How does the transfiguration fit into this context? In what way does the Transfiguration help the disciples understand what is going on with this huge paradigm shift? In other words, what is the purpose of the transfiguration?
8. In what way is the Transfiguration a little like time travel? How does verse 27 help us think that is what is going on here?
9. What encouragements do you get from this passage about what it is going to be like when Jesus returns?

Notes:
