

Sermon Text: Luke 16:14-18

Sermon Title: Two Master Disaster

Main Idea:

Jesus gives us a huge warning in Luke 16:13. It is impossible to serve two masters! Sometimes though, we try. In Luke 16:14-18, Jesus gives us an illustration of what can happen if we don't take his warning seriously and try to serve God and money at the same time.

Discussion Questions

1. What was this sermon trying to do?
2. What do you think Jesus means in Luke 16:13 when he talks about serving two masters? Why does Jesus say it is impossible?
3. How seriously do you take the threat of becoming greedy? Why might someone be tempted not to take it very seriously?
4. What is Luke 16:14-18 doing in the context here?
5. How do the Pharisees illustrate the dangers of greed and idolatry in this passage?
6. When you find yourself becoming angry when someone is sharing biblical truth what should it cause you to do?
7. How do greed and idols sometimes produce false confidence? How does that kind of false confidence reveal itself in this passage?
8. How can wealth and prosperity act as spiritual anesthetics?
9. Why is apathy considered a dangerous spiritual condition in the context of this sermon?
10. How does the reference to divorce in verse 18 fit into the broader message of Luke 16?
11. What practical steps can Christians take to guard their hearts against the love of money and maintain their relationship with God?

Sermon Notes: This is a place you can record your own notes and thoughts as you listen to the message today so that you can think about them later.