

Sermon Listening Worksheet

Passage: Luke 17:1-4

Today's Focus: How to Stay Safe in a Spiritually Dangerous World

Key Quotes

1. "The spiritual dangers we face are actually more serious than the physical ones."
 2. "It would be better to die by DROWNING than to cause someone else to sin."
 3. "Recognize the reality. Believe the warning. Watch out for yourself."
 4. "Jesus puts a warning label on people like the Pharisees... who are teaching you to live for now."
 5. "We don't just need each other when we are doing well. We need each other when we are not doing so well."
-

Important Concepts

1. Spiritual danger is real and often overlooked.
Jesus teaches that eternal threats are far more significant than temporary physical ones.
 2. Christians must guard themselves and others.
We must live humbly, stay alert, and help others stay on course through loving correction.
 3. Biblical community is essential for spiritual safety.
We need honest, grace-filled relationships where truth is spoken and forgiveness is practiced.
-

Thought Questions

1. In one clear sentence, summarize the central message of today's sermon.
2. Why are spiritual dangers more serious than physical dangers?

3. How does Jesus make clear the threat of causing someone else to sin, according to verses 1–2?
4. Can you identify areas in your life or influences around you that may pose spiritual dangers?
5. According to the sermon, what are three specific steps you can take to stay spiritually safe?
6. Why is confronting, repenting, and forgiving essential in a healthy Christian community?
7. What attitudes or commitments are necessary to make these practices effective?
8. What is one specific change or commitment you feel challenged to make this week based on today's message?